This institution is an equal opportunity provider.
The Summer Food Service Program is a program of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, administered in California by the California Department of Education.
Lunch at the Library is a project of the California State Library, supported with funds from the State of California.

Through the Lunch at the Library program, the California Library Association and California Summer Meal Coalition provide libraries with the resources and support they need to establish themselves as quality summer meal program sites for their communities.

Summer Meal Program

The project is funded by a grant from the David and Lucile Packard Foundation, and it is supported in whole or in part by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian.
